

Maxwell City

Miss Addie Dickman is quite sick with tonsillitis.

D. N. Jackson was a business visitor to Raton Wednesday.

J. L. Gunn, of Koehler, spent Wednesday in Maxwell.

Miss Gladys Sproull went to Raton Wednesday to visit a few days and to attend the closing exercises of the schools.

S. H. Rogers, of Raton, came down here Monday and is looking after business matters for a few days.

Misses Margaret Krarawitter, and Lottie Larson spent Sunday with friends in Maxwell.

E. A. Littrell went to Las Vegas Sunday to be ready for the opening of court, where he has been summoned for jury service.

W. S. McCloud and J. H. Harris made a business trip to Albuquerque Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Littrell returned home Thursday from Missouri, where she spent the past year in school.

Gus Brackett left Wednesday for California. He goes seeking health and will probably be gone three or four months.

Mr. Cecil was here Wednesday on his way to his ranch, having just returned from a trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Edgar Rice, of Montana, came Wednesday of last week, and will spend some time visiting her relatives. She is at present at the home of her father, E. A. Littrell.

Max Dikman returned Tuesday and will probably remain here. He has been in Baltimore, Md., for several years, but grew up here in Maxwell City. As usual they all come back sooner or later.

Brilliant.

Walter Kerr, mine inspector for the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific mines at Van Houten, was in Brilliant the early part of the week.

William Crutchley, of this place, was a Raton visitor the first of the week.

A. R. Quick, of Gardiner, manager of the Blossburg Mercantile company, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Koehler and Van Houten, looking over the stocks in those places.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Smith were in from their ranch Wednesday to meet their daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been teaching school at Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hurdle and family of Gardiner, left Wednesday for Larned, Kansas, where they will visit relatives for several weeks. Mr. Hurdle runs the dinky engine at Gardiner for the Swastika route coal company.

Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Eva Stanley were visiting in town Wednesday.

Charles Weltrel is running the dinky engine at the Gardiner coke ovens during the absence of Joseph Hurdle.

Edward Triplett, clerk at the Gardiner mine, was in Raton Wednesday.

Has the Front Seat.

The best man we have in the city for its general good is the one you will always see on the front seat of the progressive "band wagon." He is the first one to extend an open and warm hand to greet the stranger and welcome him to one of the territory's greatest cities. He will resent an insult to the city as quickly as he would a slur at a member of his family. He very politely invites the chronic croaker to move on. He is ever ready to give his energetic support to every public enterprise. He talks up the city at home and abroad and believes it the best place on earth in which to live, and desires to be buried here when he dies. If every citizen should strive to be like this man for one year our city would improve as it never has before in its history.—Silver City Enterprise.

New Mexico May Get Ahead.

Washington, May 15.—Although an enabling act was passed by the Fifty-ninth congress for Oklahoma and Indian territory to come into the Union as one state to be known as Oklahoma and, although a constitution has been gotten up, there is talk in official circles here that New Mexico may get ahead of Oklahoma as the forty-sixth state of the Union. News has reached here that the governor of Oklahoma has been enjoined from issuing a proclamation calling an election for the adoption of the constitution formed and from electing state officials of the new state of Oklahoma on account of many defects alleged to exist in the constitution.

Wants Sentence Commuted.

Hillsboro, N. M., May 15.—A petition is being circulated here through the county asking Acting Governor Reynolds to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence pronounced last week by Judge Parker against Valentin Madril, who gave her husband poison, and Alma Lyons, the negress who assisted the woman in poisoning her husband. The petition is receiving a good many signatures. The execution of the woman is set for June 7th.

PARTIALLY EQUIPPED.

Stranger—That haughty young man must be one of our millionaires?
Hostess—No, indeed. He has all the airs, but none of the millions.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

TWO OF A KIND.

Mrs. Brown—I met Mrs. Peck just now, I do think she is such a horrid, spiteful woman, always running people down behind their backs—
Mr. Brown (sweetly)—Well, you needn't imitate her.

Michael C. Farley Dead.

Michael C. Farley, an old and well known resident of this city, died at his home, South Second street and Rio Grande avenue, shortly after 6 o'clock Thursday morning, age 72. Mr. Farley was stricken with paralysis last Monday morning. Medical aid was quickly summoned, but owing to his advanced age and feeble condition, he did not rally and remained in a semi-conscious condition until the end.

Mrs. Farley had previously been summoned to the bedside of her sister, who is seriously ill at her home in Cincinnati, Ohio, but returned to Raton as soon as she received word of her husband's condition and with other members of the family, was at the bedside before the end came.

Mr. Farley was a native of Kingston, County Cavin, Ireland, and came to this country in 1849 and located at Madison, Indiana, later moving to Columbus, that state. He came to Raton in 1894, where he has since resided. In his younger days Mr. Farley learned the trade of machinist and became an expert in that line. During his residence here he had not been actively engaged in business.

In addition to a widow, he leaves five children, as follows: Mrs. C. E. Smyer, Mrs. Lemuel White and John Farley, of this city; Charles Farley of Albuquerque and William F. Farley of Los Angeles. The latter son reached this city in time to attend the funeral.

Mr. Farley was a man of the strictest integrity and highly respected by a large circle of friends.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 Saturday at St. Patrick's church and were largely attended. High mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. V. Cooney. Burial was at the Catholic cemetery.

Stage Line to Taos.

H. H. Hankins, of Elizabethtown, was in the city on Thursday on business connected with the extension of his stage line from Elizabethtown to Taos. This will require fifty more horses and some new stages as well. The Hankins stage line will then extend from Springer to Taos. This is a great improvement on traveling in Taos county and will be much appreciated by the public.

Mr. Hankins is a veteran stage line driver and owner, and can be depended upon to look conscientiously after the welfare of his patrons while in his care. The expense of the new line is being financed in this city.

On Official Business.

E. G. Twitty, of Raton, who is the efficient probate clerk of Colfax county, spent today in the city on official business and making acquaintances. Mr. Twitty served for several years as deputy probate clerk of the county and was elected to the position he now holds in November, 1906, by a very handsome majority. This is his first visit to Santa Fe, although he has resided in the Territory thirty-six years.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Mercantile Company Incorporates

Incorporation papers for the Taos Mercantile Company, with a capital of $30,000, have been filed with the territorial secretary. The incorporators are C. F. Rensberg, John Morrow, Ernst Ruth and George J. Pace. The company will conduct a general mercantile business at Taos.

Advertise. Oh, Advertise.

The catalogue man recognizes in the advertising agent his most powerful assistant. He realizes that it is advertising which brings him his orders. Let the local merchants awaken to the fact that local papers can do for them just what the advertising agents do for the catalogue houses and the flow of money to the city mail order houses from this community will stop.—Las Vegas Optic.

Strayed.

Gray pony, weight about 700 lbs; branded star and crescent on left shoulder. Telephone any information to Howard, Koehler mine.

Joe Floyd has bought out the interest of his partner in the Floyd & Allison livery stable, which in future will be known as the Floyd stable. Mr. Floyd is a genial business man and has many friends who will congratulate him on this advance in business. Mr. Allison has taken a switchman's position with the Santa Fe—Raton Range.

Bring in Your Samples

A. T. McIntyre, president of the Deep Tunnel Mining and Milling company of Elizabethtown, is collecting ore to place in cabinets to be placed in the depots at Raton. The following letter to the Prospector explains the matter quite fully:

Elizabethtown, N. M.,
February 14, 1907.

Red River Prospector,
Red River, N. M.

Dear Sir: I am collecting mineral specimens from Elizabethtown and Red River, to be placed in cabinets, one at Santa Fe depot and one at the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific depot in Raton, to advertise the Red River and Elizabethtown mining districts. If the miners of Red River will donate specimens, labeled, showing what property they are from, they will be placed in the cabinet just as they are labeled. Please bring or send them to A. T. McIntyre, and leave at the postoffice in Elizabethtown. Hoping the people will see the good of this and respond quickly, I am yours truly,

A. T. MCINTYRE.

Any ore left at the News and Press office in Cimarron, or handed to Arthur O'Sullivan, will be forwarded to Mr. McIntyre.

Subscribe for the Cimarron News-Press. It will cost you just two dollars a year. Address the Cimarron Publishing Co., Cimarron, N. M.
